
Learning Objectives

MedBridge

A New Look at Section GG for the Home Health Agency: 2018 Update

Ellen Strunk, PT, MS, GCS, CEEAA, CHC

Course Objectives:

- Describe the functional outcome measure implemented in the Home Health Agency
- Understand the purpose of the functional outcome measure in the Home Health Agency
- Implement accurate assessment of self-care items
- Understand the definitions of the mandatory self-care items for Home Health Agency
- Implement a process to assess the mandatory self-care items in the Home Health Agency
- Implement accurate assessment of mobility items
- Understand the definitions of the rating scale used in Section GG
- Understand the definitions of the mandatory mobility items related to bed mobility and transfers for the Home Health Agency
- Implement a process to assess the mandatory mobility items related to bed mobility and transfers in the Home Health Agency
- Understand the definitions of the mandatory mobility items related to walking, wheeling, and picking up an object for the Home Health Agency
- Implement a process to assess the mandatory mobility items related walking, wheeling, and picking up an object in the Home Health Agency
- Understand the requirements for setting discharge goals in the Home Health Agency
- Implement a process accurately assess a patient's ability level and set appropriate goals in the Home Health Agency
- Understand what the functional measure for the Home Health Agency will measure
- Implement an interdisciplinary process to improve collaboration and effectiveness in completing the OASIS-D in the Home Health Agency